TRADE OF B.C. IS PARAMOUNT

Directors of U. F. A. Will Ask Government to Adopt Report of Transportation Committee

CONVENTION TO BE CALLED

Other Important Resolutions Will Be Submitted When Delegation Waits on the Cabinet This Afternoon

After an important meeting held in the city last evening, the Board of Directors of the United Farmers of Alberta will repair to the government buildings in a body this afternoon to lay before the Premier and members of the government the resolutions passed at the recent convention.

It is understood that the directors will lay great stress on the Western trade question. The government will be asked to adopt the report of the transportation committee as read at the Farmers' convention and to carry out the suggestions embodied therein.

The main clause in the report which was referred to by the directors contained a proposal that steps be taken to get together a conference of representatives of all the different provinces and consulting interests of both provinces, as well as the heads of the government of both provinces, and there work out ways and means to bring about a better state of affairs.

The government will be asked to call such a convention at an early date. Other suggestions in the report are the establishment of government controlled slaughterhouses which would give the independent producer and dealer a chance to meet and make a fair bargain without the interference of the monopolists; the safeguarding of the interests of interprovincial trade by a system of licensing and bonding commission merchants in the same way that grain commission men are now bonded; the working out of a system of lay inspection along the same lines as the government inspection of loess now in vogue among lumbermen, and the securing of redress from the C. P. R. for the retarding of the development of both provinces by discrimination in freight rates.

The directors will recommend to the government that the Local Improvement Act remain as at present, but that the Local Improvement Councils be given larger powers to deal with matters of purely local concern.

Attention will be made of the attitude which the Board of Directors take on the question of the agricultural college and its relation to the university. It is understood that a proposition will be presented to the government for acceptance. If not accepted, the directors will meet again to arrange some unanimity of opinion on the question.

Dying Man in Hamilton Charges Wife and Murder Case Will Result

Hamilton, Feb. 4.—Arthur Neville, who claimed his wife threw a lighted lamp at him last week, died in the hospital yesterday. An inquest was held and it is likely Mrs. Neville, who has been under arrest since the assault was committed, will be charged with murder or manslaughter. She claims Neville, who was formerly a well-known commercial traveler, tried to cut her throat, and that the lamp upset in the scuffle.

The total at the Edmonton clearing house for the week ending Thursday, February 3, was $2,217,704. This is an increase of $39,280.55 over the corresponding week last year.

PROTESTS FROM STRATHCONA

In Regard to Location of C. N. R.'s Calgary Line, Also Against Extension Allowed C. P. R.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—The Railway Committee of the Commons yesterday rejected the bill authorizing the construction of additional branch lines in the west, including the following:

From a point in Township 22, Range 2, east of principal meridian north-westerly one hundred miles from Osborne on the Pembina branch westerly and southwesterly to a point on the line of the Manitoba Southwestern Colonization Railway between Carleton Place and Boissevain.

The following extensions of time were granted:
From Ottelbarn on the Emerson branch and south-east to Starbuck, from Killam north-west to Strathcona.

In connection with the last mentioned line the minister read a communication from the Strathcona board of trade objecting to the extension of time.

Dr. Cash's Canadian Northern bill was further dealt with, no time for the construction of the following lines being extended:
From its line at Strathcona southerly to Calgary. From Regina southerly to a point on the international boundary between ranges 1 and 2 west of third meridian. From a point on the Rossburn branch near Russell westerly via Yorkton to a point on its authorized line near Goose Lake, Sask. From a point three miles north of the Company's line between Winnipeg and St. Anne thence in generally southerly direction to the Manitoba boundary. From a point on the company's authorized line at or near west of Battleford, thence in generally westerly direction to a point near the west of the approved line on the crossing of the South Saskatchewan river from Regina southerly to Humboldt, thence northwesterly down the valley of the Carrot river to Pas Mission, and from a point on the company's line between Humboldt and South Saskatchewan river north-easterly to the crossing of the South Saskatchewan river by the company's Prince Albert branch.

Mr. Douglas, member for Strathcona, asked that Strathcona-California branch be located one or two miles to the east of the approved line on the ground that it paralleled the Calgary and Edmonton railway to a point five miles below Leduc. It was decided to refer the suggestion to government engineers.

CHANGE THEIR POLICY
Suffragettes Said to be About to Abandon Militant Methods

London, Feb. 4.—The militant suffragettes seem to have realized the futility of militancy. Any way, it is announced it will be abandoned and it will not be resumed "unless we are convinced that the government will yield to nothing else." Opposition to the government will, however, be continued and the suffragettes will take the field in every by-election to urge electors to vote against the government.

CONSERVATIVES SANG "GOD SAVE THE KING"

When Mr. Borden Introduced his Amendment Calling for Contribution of Two Dreadnaughts

DAY OF EXCITEMENT IN COMMONS

The Premier Sets Forth the Government's Policy and Declares he is a Canadian First of All—Will Stand or Fall by the Proposals—Mr. Monk Calls for a Plebiscite

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—The Conservative party in the House of Commons hailed their flag to the main mast in the words of Mr. Borden's amendment to the motion that the second reading of the naval bill be adopted. Mr. Borden came out for a contribution of an amount sufficient to purchase or construct two Dreadnaughts for such purposes of naval defence as in the scheme of the British admiralty may be deemed expedient.

The following is Mr. Borden's amendment:
"That the proposals of the government do not follow the suggestions and recommendations of the admiralty and in so far as they empower the government to withhold the naval force of Canada from those of the Empire in time of war, are abhorred and dangerous."

"That no such proposal can safely be accepted, unless they thoroughly ensure unity of organization and of action, without which there can be no effective co-operation in any scheme for Empire defence."

"That the said proposals, while necessitating a heavy outlay for construction and maintenance, will also necessitate or effect a withdrawal of the Empire or adequate or satisfactory results to Canada."

"That a permanent policy should not be entered into involving large future expenditures of this character until it has been submitted to the people and has received their approval."

"That in the meantime, the immediate duty of Canada and the impending necessities of the Empire can best be discharged and met, by placing, without delay, at the disposal of imperial authorities as a free and loyal contribution from the people of Canada, such an amount that may be sufficient to purchase or construct two battleships, or armored cruisers, or the latest dreadnaught type, giving to the admiralty full discretion to expend said sum at such time and for such purposes of naval defence as in their judgment may be deemed expedient."

"This is the policy," said the Premier, "which I propose to submit to the people of Canada."

MR. McDUGALL IS RETIRING

From the Y. M. C. A. Board of Directors—Those Chosen for the Coming Year

The annual Y.M.C.A. meeting was held last evening for the reading of the secretary's report on the year's work and the election of officers for the coming year.

J. M. Hallentine, general secretary of the Calgary Y.M.C.A., was present, and was called upon to speak. He congratulated the Edmonton Association in coming so nicely through the second year in the new building, a year which was generally regarded as the most critical. He extended a greeting from Calgary and expressed a desire for closer relationship in the common work of the two societies, which, although progressing well, were certainly yet only touching the fringe of the work to be done.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Secretary Ward and Messrs. Jackson and Harlow for their very efficient services during the year, making possible the splendid showing in the reports.

Mr. Ward replied, mentioning the coming of Mr. Frovde and the expectation of the increased work which they would be able to accomplish.

The retiring directors were all re-elected with the exception of John A. McDougall, who desired to withdraw. Those elected are as follows: Messrs. T. M. Turnbull, J. M. Thom, C. E. Race, Dr. Riddell, Dr. H. R. Smith.

NO CANALS ON MARS

Astronomer Shatters Popular Idea—No Fears About Comet

London, Feb. 3.—A romance of the universe was shattered last evening by Mr. E. W. Maunder of Greenwich observatory at a meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society.

He declared that there were no canals on Mars, that there were no Martians, and that all the interesting stories which have been written about the planet were simply so much sensational fiction.

Mr. S. A. Saunders first exhibited lantern slides showing new photographs of Mars taken by Professor Hale at the Mount Wilson Observatory, California, by means of his 60-inch telescope.

"The Canals are not shown," he observed dryly. "The explanation is that the telescope was too strong to indicate them."

"The photographs are an enormous improvement on any that have been previously taken," said Mr. Maunder, "and yet there is no indication on them of the spider-like network."

"The explanation given by Mr. A. Antonelli, director of the Mars section, is a satisfactory one. It is that the supposed canals are the effect on the eye of congeries of dark spots."

"There never was any real ground for supposing that we had in the marking of Mars any evidence of artificial action. Had it not been that the idea was a somewhat sensational one, we would never have heard of it, and it is the better for science that it has now been completely disposed of."

WAGER MONEY IS RETURNED

Supreme Court Decides That the Contract Between Evans and Robert is a Wager

Whether the well-known contract drawn up between Wm. R. Evans and C. J. Robert as to the identity of the hawkeye stallion, "Twisthorpe Rupee" was a wager or not a wager has been decided in the affirmative by Mr. Justice Stuart, who heard the argument in the Supreme Court last week.

His Lordship, in delivering his judgment yesterday, stated that in his opinion, the issue in the case was as to the existence or non-existence of an alleged past or present fact. He held that a contract might still be a wager although one of the parties might have positive knowledge as to the fact in dispute. Continuing, he said it was open to a person to ascertain the actual existence of a matter improbable or unusual fact, and then get up a wager with other persons about it and hold them to their agreement. It seemed to him that one of the evils struck at by the Act would be unincidental.

The decision of Mr. Justice Stuart throws the case out of court, and there seems no alternative but that the stake of $1,000 put up by Mr. Robert on the bet will be returned to him. The court also holds the Evans' stake of $250, which will also be returned. The defendant is allowed a counsel fee of $30.

Canada Gives $50,000.
Ottawa, Feb. 3.—Canada will give $50,000 in aid of the food of sufferers in France. A supplementary estimate providing for this was brought down in the Commons by Hon. Mr. Fielding at the opening of the House this afternoon. A reply has been received from the commissionaire at Paris in response to the government's query of a few days ago, stating that the French government would not consider the offer of aid from Canada as anything derogatory to national dignity. The consent of parliament to above grant is therefore asked by the government.

The Comet.
Mr. A. C. D. Crommelin was equally reassuring regarding Halley's comet.

"Although the speed of the comet is so great," he stated, "it has little density, and I do not believe we would suffer the slightest damage if we went right through the head of it. We shall probably pass through the tail."

"The comet has been spreading out for millions of miles, and is so large that the density of the tail must be very small indeed, for it was not known until afterwards that the earth passed through it in 1861."

"It is possible that something may be seen of the tail in the midnight sky in May. The comet is not at all hot except when it comes into the immediate neighborhood of the sun."

"We may follow it until the first week in March next. Then it will approach too near the sun, and will be lost for a month, but it will be at its best as an evening star in the last ten days of May."

FIFTEEN YEARS AT EDMONTON

Young Roper, Who Shot Harris at Qu'Appelle, Guilty of Man-slaughter

Regina, Sask., Feb. 4.—For shooting Andrew Harris at Qu'Appelle last August Harry Roper, a nineteen year old English boy, was yesterday sentenced to Edmonton penitentiary for a term of 15 years. He was charged with murder but the prosecution showed that there had been trouble between the two men and that Roper had fired as a result of a row. The jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter and Judge Newlands delivered sentence as stated.

Local Option Referendum will be Simple Matter Under New Municipal Laws of the Province

Among the number to address the government were W. G. Hunt of Calgary, president of the League. He pressed for the establishment of a bureau of law enforcement with special officers and a permanent detective staff. This he thought would mean the approval of the liquor men as the illicit sale of liquor was detrimental to their own interests. Mr. Hunt said that a Calgary hotel keeper had intimated to him that only one hotel in Calgary observed the liquor regulations and that was the one he himself conducted.

"The liquor laws have been as strictly enforced in Calgary during the past two months as in any other city in Canada," said Hon. C. W. Cross. "An officer in whom I have the utmost confidence has been in the habit of visiting the hotels of Calgary every evening. This man is doing his duty and if he were not he would be at once replaced."

In reply Mr. Hunt stated that the period he has reference to was special supervision to the two months of special supervision.

The government was requested that no permits for taking liquor into the north country should be granted except on personal application. To this the Attorney-General replied that circumstances caused many to remain in the north for years at a time and a personal application in their case would certainly be a hardship. He reminded the delegation that since the present government had been formed the quantity of liquor to be procured on an individual permit had been reduced from five to two gallons.

Premier Rutherford explained to the delegation the possibility of taking a prohibition vote either for the province as a whole or for individual municipalities. The delegates had assumed that under the new Local Improvement Act town and country would be put in one municipality and that in the case of a prohibition referendum the town could offset the country in attaining the desired end. The assumption was, however, corrected by the Premier, who stated it was the intention of the government to introduce four distinct municipal bills, dealing with cities, towns, villages, and a fourth with rural districts. This would give opportunity for a simplified local option law which the Premier promised to keep in mind in framing up the new bills.

Mrs. W. C. McKinney of Clarendon urged the aims of the W.C.T.U. upon the executive and Rev. G. W. Wright.

MONTREAL TO HAVE NEW RINK

It will be a Truly Autocratic One and Will be Given Over to the Graceful Sport of "Waltzing"

Montreal, Jan. 31.—The announcement was made yesterday at the figure skating competition for male members of the Earl Grey Skating Club that the club would soon start to build a new home.

Today this announcement was amplified by the news that the Earl Grey property at 155 Drummond street, now very far from Sherbrooke street, had been purchased for this purpose.

Mr. Edie confirmed the report of the sale.

The new rink, it is said, will be one of the finest ever erected in Canada. It will be to Montreal what the Victoria rink used to be in years gone by, when it was the place where the nobility and royalty from across the sea used to enjoy the hospitality of Montreal's best society in winter time.

Particular attention is to be paid to club and dressing rooms, and while it is not to be exactly a hockey rink it will have sufficient ice space and sufficient seating accommodation to permit of the most important and most extensive winter entertainments.

It will probably also become the home of the amateur hockey clubs.

JOE MOIR IS IN TOWN

The President of the Calgary Hockey League Discusses Hockey in the Southern City

President Joe Moir of the Calgary City League is a visitor in Edmonton this week. Mr. Moir is playing with the crack Savage rink of Calgary, which is giving a good account of itself in the Twin City bonspiel.

When "Joe" was seen yesterday morning in the bonspiel headquarters The Capital he was enjoying the first rest his rink has had since the draw commenced. When asked how things were progressing in the Calgary City League Mr. Moir stated that they had three of the best-matched teams he had ever seen. It was just a toss-up which would finally win the cup. Only one game is played each night and the rink is crowded to the doors.

"How are the chances for a series between Deacons and the Tigers?" Mr. Moir was asked. He replied that such a series would attract great interest in Calgary and should provide some keen contests, for as near as he could size up the two teams, they were evenly matched.

Mr. Moir will be glad to conduct negotiations on behalf of the Calgary teams with any local clubs desiring games in the southern city. He is at the Yale.

Mr. Ebbetts' enthusiasm for a 168 game schedule must be purely impersonal. To the casual observer the thorough over which he is magnifying can get all the baseball it wants in about three weeks.

QUEENS SPRING A SURPRISE

Win a City League Game From J. H. Morris by 7 to 3—Play was Very Ragged

The City League game last evening between J. H. Morris & Co. and Queens Avenue was rather a surprise to the talent. It was expected the wearers of the red and white would have a fairly easy win, but all hope was upset. Queens Avenue after the first five minutes were strictly "it" and rolled the score up with a commendable quickness. It may be said that Doug O'Hara's daisies had an off night with the emphasis heavy on the off, Herick left his eagle eye at home on the piano, and let shots go by that any other time he would have eaten up. Lines played a hard but seemingly ineffectual game, while Gordon at cover did not shine. Waugh was the pick of the forwards and at that was lost in centre ice. Oliver, Scott and Banford worked hard but were out-played by their checks.

The star of the Queens Avenue team was McDonald. He played his best game of the season and had his eye on the nets as his total of five goals will bear witness. Eric Banford, Scott played a clever game but must remember that an occasional pass will never do any damage. Blayney, though out of his position at right wing, proved himself to be in good condition and showed up well. Lyons was the weak man of the Queen's line.

The defence all played up to the mark, Beatty in goal, had rather a tame evening but showed all the earmarks of a good goal tender whenever the occasion demanded. McDougall and Howe were right on the job.

The less said about the details of the play the better, as the game was extremely ragged, at times degenerating into an old time shiny match. Referee Eric Clark and Judge of Play Sutherland made good officials. The summary of goals tells the story of the game.

THIS GAME SHOWED CLASS

Demons and Y. M. C. A. Put up the Best Exhibition of the Season —Former Win by 3 to 2

Any person having any doubts about the class of hockey put up by the Edmonton City League would have been pleasantly surprised last evening. Y. M. C. A. met Deacons, and the game that resulted can safely be termed the best of the season. In spite of the soft ice the teams showed lightning speed and at no time did the interest flag. Deacons held their regular team on while Y. M. C. A. were strengthened 100 per cent, by the addition of Lloyd Bishopric at cover point. He was the star of the evening and despite it being his first time to face the starter, was in excellent shape. Y. M. C. A. put up a very fine exhibition of hockey and can safely be ranked with the Deacons as the two fastest amateur teams in the province.

A word about the officials. Harold Deacon as referee was a wizard. He caught every suspicion of an off-side or a kick and did not make a single slip. Ship, right.

No time should be lost in entering Deacons and the Y. M. C. A. in the Provincial League; indeed, we believe Deacons are already entered. They will certainly give a good account of themselves.

The Play

Game commenced about 9:40 and the crowd of 400 people were brought to their feet at once by the lightning manner in which the teams started off. After some end to end play, Aldous broke away and tore down the ice, coming to Bishopric, Hum gave a nice pass to Dea and he put a counter into the net after four minutes play. To o. Hardly had the puck been faced when Douglas evaded up the score 1—1 in one minute's play. Face-off. Burns and Greenwood rush but Aldous intercepts pass. Bill gets but passes wide and Aldous gets possession after a scramble. Bishopric checks him hard. Burns gets and combines with Greenwood. Later shoots wide. Play in Deacon's territory. McKenney takes up the ice and loses to McCrimmon. Play now in centre ice.

Demons Score Again
Aldous rushes, passes to McGannon and the "nimble hander" sends in a cannon ball shot from the left boards which beats Wright. Score now 2 to 1. Six minutes play.

Face off again and a series of off-sides are caught by Dea who is getting much on the job. Burns is getting the puck on nearly every play, off, having the jump on McKenney. Bill receives puck behind his own goal and rushes through whole team only to make an offside pass. Play quickly transferred to Deacon's territory. Douglas shoots from side and Rus clears. Bill runs up ice and Bishopric checks hard. Gordon Banford makes a pretty run and passes to Aldous who loses puck.

Y. M. C. A. Force Play
Y. M. C. A. are forcing play and Deacon's goal is in danger. Face-off in front of goal. McKenney saves. Chowne sends in a sizzler from the boards, and Rus clears. Greenwood recovers and shoots. Allan again on duty. Dea and McKenney take a run

HUGE CROWDS IN ENGLAND

Football Games Draw an Attendance Equal to Population of Some Canadian Cities

Exact statistics are not available because they have never been collected, but it is no exaggeration to say that every week in England alone from 75,000 to 80,000 matches are played, of which not more than 200 are between professional clubs. There are less than 6,000 professional players, but there are something like half a million amateur players, and there would be many thousands more if grounds could be found for club to play upon. The London Football Association furnishes an object lesson of complete attention. This is the largest affiliated association in the world, and its membership roll numbers 1,400 to 1,500 clubs.

More than two years ago 58,000 persons were present when Chelsea met Woolwich Arsenal, but this record and others for a league game were left far behind on Monday of Christmas week, when some 70,000 squeezed into the grounds, including a large number who rushed the gates and thousands were sent away disappointed. If a popular London club should be one of the finalists next April, and their opponents should be such a club as the Aston Villa, Newcastle, one of the Sheffield teams, or Blackburn Rovers, there would be an attendance exceeding that when Tottenham Hotspur met Sheffield United or when England met Scotland at Hampden Park in 1908, the attendance then exceeding 120,000.

WHITCROFT VS. PATRICK

Whitcroft started at rover, and in the opinion of the hockey experts was due for all the headlines that should come his way. He was a decided improvement on the great Lester Patrick as rover. He was always up with the puck, checking hard and assisting to a marked degree with the combination work. Whitcroft was possibly the pick of the forward men on the ice. A very fast skater, a clever stick handler, and a hard worker, he contributed in no small degree to the dash and spirit with which the Renfrewites went at their opponents.

Hay Miller's form was vastly improved over anything he has shown so far this season. Miller is gradually rounding out shape, and with two or three more games he will be holding his own with any one who comes along.

The people who saw him holding down right wing for the Edmonton seven in the Stanley Cup games were utterly surprised at the difference in Miller's playing—Ottawa Free Press.

down rink, but unfortunately an off-side pass spoils their good intentions. Greenwood steps down boards with the elusive rover and Dea and McKenney return to the far end. Wright runs out of goal and smotherers a sure-looking counter. McGannon gets two minutes for club-swinging. Burns and Greenwood rush and half-time whistle finds the Deacons fighting hard. Score 2—1 favor Deacons.

Second Half
Douglas gets puck from face-off and runs down rink. McGannon now on again. McKenney and Mack rush and Bishopric gets in the way. McGannon tries a long shot which Wright makes a light touch of. Y. M. C. A. forwards are working well and checking back fiercely.

Aldous rushes, passes to Dea who makes a weak effort to score. Bill Banford takes down and gets side, tracked into a corner. Y. M. C. A. forwards again force game and splendid work of Deacon's defence saves the net. Greenwood shows a spectacular burst of speed and play is centred around Deacon's goal. Aldous makes rush which changes the location of the puck considerably. Gordon takes a chance on a lone shot and a light is put out of business. ($100 and costs.) Burns misses a goal by a narrow margin.

Demons Score Third
Chowne sends in a wicked "un" and Bill gets in front of it. Y. M. C. A. again in danger. McGannon hurdles down the ice and gives Wright a failure for an instant. McKenney rushes passes to McGannon and from him the puck travels to Bill Banford who breaks into the goal summary

BREAKS HALF MILE RECORD

Mel. Sheppard's Mark Beaten by R. J. Egan Who Negotiates Distance in 1:57

The feat of the tenth annual games of the Seventy-first Regiment, New York City, held at the armory Monday night in New York City, was the running of R. J. Egan, Company "B," the half-mile handicap, closed to members of the regiment. He set a brand new American indoor record for the distance, pulling through the field and crossing the tape in the sterling time of 1:57. The previous armory record was 2:10.15 made by G. T. Fitzgerald ten years ago, and the previous American indoor record was put up in 1907 by "Mel" Sheppard at the Twenty-second Regiment Armory in this city.

Egan gave fifty yards to the long-marrier and went after them in the very first lap. He tore round the track without a let-up and as if he was running a sprint race rather than a half mile. With never an effort beyond the ordinary ones incident to running apparent to the spectators, he reeled off the five laps with tremendous sustained speed, the fifth being covered in 19 seconds.

The Renfrew Captain Finds Himself Shut Out of His Own Team

Renfrew, Jan. 31.—Renfrew has taken another step to whip its team into shape for the hard matches with Ottawas and the Wanderers. A coach is being brought from Montreal and his name is Quinn—not Emmet: Quinn but another of that name.

The situation with regard to the Renfrew team has developed most peculiarly when Lester Patrick found himself unable to get a place. Whitcroft has secured the rover's place for good, and there is no place to put the ex-Wanderer captain unless either Taylor or Frank Patrick are changed from the defence—this is unlikely, in view of the fact that both are putting up brilliant hockey at present. Whitcroft makes his rover a fine offensive position backing up his line consistently, while Lester Patrick developed a tendency to make it part of the defence. Any change that may be made will be the placing of Hogan at left wing though Rowe has proven himself such a good scorer that he has strong strings on the left position.

With the development of team work now that the team goal quite complete, Renfrew will be right in with Ottawa and Wanderers at the end of the season, and it would not be surprising after all if the Stanley cup did not rest in O'Brienville's front window for a while.

with a ringer in 14 minutes. Score now 3 to 1.

Soon after the face-off Bishopric body checks McGannon and ambles to the side for two minutes. Inspired by this very, very, very, very bad example, Burns and Gordon exchange blows and join Bishopric's party in the penalty box for a short stay of two minutes. After these few little details have been attended to the game continues.

Y. M. C. A. Score Again
Aldous and McGannon rush, but pass off-side. Douglas gets and passes to Greenwood, who loses to McKenney. Fred misses a goal. Bishopric now on. Douglas gets disc and sets sail for Deacon's goal and sends in his card to Rus. Allan is not at home and Y. M. C. A. count another in 6 minutes play. 3 to 2.

Banford and Burns now on. The play now got so fast that they forgot to put down any details, being too interested in the play. However, we got back on the job just in time to see Bill Banford wending his way over to keep company for 2 minutes. McKenney is making desperate efforts to tie the score and Burns misses a goal by an eye lash.

Demons are playing on the defensive. Aldous and Allan do some tall stopping. Bill now on. McKenney and McGannon rush and Wright now that the team goal quite complete, Renfrew will be right in with Ottawa and Wanderers at the end of the season, and it would not be surprising after all if the Stanley cup did not rest in O'Brienville's front window for a while.

Douglas gets puck from face-off and runs down rink. McGannon now on again. McKenney and Mack rush and Bishopric gets in the way. McGannon tries a long shot which Wright makes a light touch of. Y. M. C. A. forwards are working well and checking back fiercely.

President McCaffery Monday closed a deal whereby Toronto secures by purchase from Cincinnati, Fletcher Smith, last year with Montreal. Last season was his first year in professional ball and he certainly made good. Fans will remember the double beating he handed Toronto one afternoon. Joe Kelley is making preparations to leave his sunny home in Maryland and hit the trail for the frozen north. Wednesday, when he and the Noise (meaning President McCaffery) attend the schedule meeting in Montreal next Friday. Kelley comes from Baltimore by way of New York, where he purposes having a chalk talk with McGraw and Stallings, and who knows Kelley may pry off a couple of star players from your uncle George if old Mother Hubbard Barrow hasn't beaten him to the cupboard.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Two well matched teams and a close score. What more can a man want for a quarter.

Demons can thank their defence for winning the game. They deserve all the kudos that is being handed out.

Y. M. C. A. forwards marked their checks with a thoroughness that rather hampered the combination of the Deacons' line. The checking back of the Y.M.C.A. forwards was one of the bright features of the game.

It would be unfair to distinguish between the two goalkeepers. Wright and Allan were simply splendid and both saved shots that looked beyond the saving stage. It is doubtful if finer goal tending has ever been seen in Edmonton.

McGannon and Dea were the best of the Deacons forwards. They were up against hard men and the fact that they both scored goals develops great credit upon them.

Lloyd Bishopric at cover for the Y.M.C.A. caught the eye of the fans with his snappy work and his play called for much favorable comment.

Gordon Banford did not take kindly to the heavy going. It takes hard ice to suit Gordon's style of play and show up his stick handling to advantage.

NEW IDEA FOR BALL PLAYERS

Patsy Donovan Will Have All His Men Vaccinated Before Going South

Boston, Jan. 31.—Manager Patsy Donovan, remembering the serious trouble the New York American club had, when Hal Chase contracted small pox last spring during the training trip in the south, has decided to take proper precautions against any such experience for the Boston Americans. He has mailed to each player on the team a request that he be vaccinated by a competent physician at once, so that by the time the men reach Hot Springs, there will be no soreness left in the arms.

Each player is further requested to obtain a certificate from his physician that they be shown to any health authorities throughout the south. These are reasonable requests, and it is hoped that they may show a clean bill of health for his team on demand.

Capt. Harry Lord was a caller at the Boston American headquarters. He had come from Portland for the day. He strongly supported manager Donovan's vaccination edict, and promised to be the first to fall into line. Lord was in fine fettle after several months' work about his new house at Cape Elizabeth, varying the task of fixing up his place with hunting in the Maine woods.

Demons to Play Calgary

The Albertans says: "Andy Roy, manager of the Edmonton Deacons, is of the opinion that his team is a bunch of world beaters, when it comes to playing any other teams in Alberta. Writing to a Calgary friend, Andy says he has $1,000 that his team can beat anything in Calgary."

A. McHugh, manager of the St. Marys, stated last evening that he did not consider the Deacons team anything out of the ordinary. The Saints rather than disappoint the Edmonton crowd went up with only four of their regular team. Then again, Calgary has three senior teams, and the Deacons are the pick of Edmonton. The Tigers or St. Marys, with full strength can give the Deacons a run for their money any time, is the opinion of the Saints' manager. He also considers a city team chosen from Tansy, Gibson, Powell, Kent, Lowes, McKennie, Roalson, McHugh and Sparrow would prove more than a match for Andy Roy's Eskimos.

Allan McDonald of the L.H.I. stated that Calgary will arrange home and home games with Deacons, goals to count, to decide the winners. The only stipulation will be that the teams must hold amateur cards of the Alberta A. A. A.

Burns at centre for Y. M. C. A. was the star of their line with the other forwards, little if any behind him. They all put up rattling good games and Douglas was successful in shooting two goals. Greenwood and Chowne are a likely pair on the boards, Chowne showing up much better last evening than in former games.

Freddy McKenney is a hard worker and fast skater but he fell down on a couple of chances. He does not stick in his place quite as much as one expects from a centre man.

McCrimmon with Bishopric in front of him, showed to much better advantage than on any previous occasion. Mac is not a fast skater, but he manages to get in front of many a well-meaning rush.

Too much praise cannot be given to Hum Aldous and Bill Banford for the Deacons' victory last evening. They were successful in holding off the attacks of the fast Y. M. C. A. forward line and that is saying a lot. The two men have each other's play down to a nicety and work together with clock-like precision. They certainly save Rus Allan good protection.

LAND PROBLEM IN BRITAIN

Some of the Impressions of a Canadian Journalist in Rural England

MR. J. R. ROBINSON'S LETTER

Some of the Surprises Which the Editor of the Toronto Telegram Met With Hard to Conceive of Change

Claverton, Somersetshire, Jan. 2.—The carriage rolled along one of the roads the Jeffreys travelled on the circuit of his bloody Assize. The air was moist and balmy; the wind blew softly over the hills. "The voice of the turtle" was not heard in the land, but the day was full of the singing of birds.

"They're thrushes or blackbirds," said the driver, "spring birds."

Some Birds in Winter

The visitor came from a country where the wild birds have less tinny voices than the hill-fowl and its associate artists in the far-famed Canadian band. The hills and fields were green as in early springtime. Farmers and gardeners report that there is no real growth in the English ground until almost April. The whole land problem of England was spread on the face of this beautiful countryside. A game preserve ran close to the land. Where the highway mounted to rising ground the traveller could see stately manor houses, encircled by ancestral trees and surrounded by broad acres.

True English Outlook

"It was all beautiful, with the calm quiet loveliness of an English landscape. And at that night before the Liberals had been, roaring in chorus:

"The land, the land,
"Twas God that made the land,
Why should we be beggars,
With the ballot in our hand?"

The land song heard for the first time, has the sound of a prayer, when it comes from the lips of poverty and industry, inspired by a real yearning for land. On repetition, the ballad degenerates into a partisan chant. The land song does not carry conviction when it is roared by fat importers and comfortable-looking partisans, who could not be dragged back to the land by a yoke of oxen and a traction engine.

Farm Rent $10 an Acre

But here around Claverton was land, 5,000 acres of it in one estate, and the farms held under lease bringing in $10 per acre per annum, and the tenant pays the taxes. The tenant farmer of 200 acres will pay his landlord $10 per acre as yearly rent. The taxes—rates, as they say in England—average $75 more on every $100 acres. A yearly rental of $10 per acre pays for the land and a large roomy house, built probably 200 years ago, splendid stables, and cottages for five laborers and their families. An English tenant farming 200 acres will want five laborers. The pay of each laborer is $4.50 per week, a free cottage and fire wood. The tenants say that under these conditions the laborers have an easier time and make more money than the farmers.

Land of Beauty

England will be a less attractive country to look at when the land estates are broken up and the land is abandoned to the processes of modern scientific agriculture. The Canadian, whose eyes are gladdened with the first look at an English landscape, is surprised to see the country so thickly wooded. Thirty or forty years ago the traveller could view from the car window of a main line train running out of Toronto a land sprinkled with trees as abundantly as trees in the English landscape. Old Ontario today does not seem to be as thickly wooded as old England. The trees on Ontario farms are localized in bush lots. In England trees are left standing in almost every field, and blend with the hedges in a beautiful tendency to make the whole country look like a park.

Farm in Big Fields

If Hon. Jas. F. Duff were put in charge of England and required to turn great estates into profitable wheat farms, the helms would have to give way to barbed wire fences and the trees be cut down so as to permit the land to be farmed in larger fields. The west of England tenant is a good farmer. He makes the land produce 40 to 50 bushels of wheat to the acre. He cannot understand why the English wheat should bring several shillings less per sack than Canada's own No. 1 hard.

Good Old Landlords

"The land" is old around Claverton has a good name. Tenant farmers would sooner see the estates remain in the hands of the old families than pass into the ownership of the successful merchant, manufacturer or importer. The business man who turns county man wants to run an estate as he runs his factory or warehouse. Tenant farmers as a rule, would rather be in the hands of the old county families than have to pay rent to owners whose landlordism is based on the proceeds of business success.

The End of an Era

The speeches and the cheers of the Asquith meeting the night before seemed to signify the end of an era. It was hard to associate the possibility of change with the grandeur of these great estates, their manor houses, their game preserves, and their farms renting at $10 per acre. The Church of St. Mary the Virgin was open. The path from the gateway was bordered by a hedge of ancient gorse "trimmed and tended" into a perfection of beauty. Some of the graves were dug centuries ago; others were made within living memory. Loving hands had garlanded these sepulchres with wreaths of ivy that rested on the sod, according to the quaint English custom of remembering the dead at Christmas time.

Landlordism Must Go

Claverton church displays the names of its rectors since its foundation in the thirteenth century. The list is classified thus:
Before the Reformation.
After the Reformation.
During the Commonwealth.
After the Restoration.
The history of the church of St. Mary the Virgin covers nearly 700 years in the life of the English people. Throughout these centuries landlordism has ruled, not altogether unkindly, over these uplands of Somersetshire. But its end is near.

JOHN R. ROBINSON.

CONSERVATIVES SANG "GOD SAVE THE KING"

inter, "set forth in this bill and by this policy the present government stands or falls. (Cheers). But all we shall not. This policy is in accordance with Liberal traditions and with the Liberal policy that Canada is a nation within the British Empire."

Sir Wilfrid then proceeded to discuss the stand taken by Mr. Monk on the naval question. The air was charged with electricity on the opposition side. He alluded also to proposals of a certain section of the Conservative party that nothing but the gift of a Dreadnaught would do. Sir Wilfrid indulged in some pleasant remarks regarding the resolution which was passed last March. He supposed that it would be binding on both sides of the House and that the small merit of consistency possessed by the Opposition would display itself. He found, however, that the Opposition was all out of tune. "The Gentleman from Jacques Cartier and the Bold Lion from Earl Grey," added the premier amid laughter, "raised a union."

A Canadian First.

"I do not pretend to be an Imperialist," declared Sir Wilfrid, "and I do not pretend to be anti-Imperialist. I am a Canadian first, last and all the time." In an eloquent speech Sir Wilfrid declared that the British Empire was built on the "solid rock" of autonomy and individual liberty. The government's policy on the naval question was declared in true keeping with this spirit of British liberty. After taking up an hour with a discussion on the general principles of the bill, Sir Wilfrid came down to a relation of what happened at the Imperial Defence conference.

Canada, Sir Wilfrid declared, might not take part in all wars. The Canadian parliament would decide what was Canada's with her naval force would participate in. He elaborated the clause which empowers the government to call out the fleet. Objection had been taken that this might be done before parliament was summoned. Conditions, however, might be such that it would be necessary to call out the Canadian navy without losing one minute in coming to the rescue of any part of the country.

The Premier then proceeded to describe in detail what was proposed to be done. There would be a fleet of four Bristols, one Boadicea and six destroyers. These would be built in Canada and a call for tenders would be issued shortly and it would be ascertained if the ships could be built here without undue extravagance. As to the length of time Sir Wilfrid was very uncertain. He thought it would take a year to erect a plant sufficiently large and well equipped to start building vessels and four years to complete the eleven ships. The Premier explained that there would be no new ministers in charge of a new department, but there would be a deputy appointed to look after the naval service. As to the German scare, he said he saw nothing in it. There was, in his opinion, no cause for war.

Mr. Monk.

Mr. Monk, after criticising the attitude taken by the French-Canadian Liberals in the House who had winked at what was going on under their very noses, moved the following amendment to the amendment of Mr. Borden:

"This House, while declaring its unalterable devotion to the British Crown, is of the opinion that the bill now submitted for its consideration changes the relations of Canada with the Empire and ought in consequence to be submitted to the Canadian people in order to obtain at once the nation's opinion by means of a plebiscite."

LIQUOR LAW IS ENFORCED

Fortune asked that the minimum penalty for breaking the license laws be placed at $50 and that a second conviction be met with imprisonment. The delegation was one of the largest which has as yet intervened the government. Rev. Dr. McQueen introduced the body and those who voiced the sentiments of the convention on the temperance question were Rev. F. W. Patterson, W. G. Hunt, Mrs. McKinney and Rev. G. W. Fortune.

SHOOTING UP LANIGAN'S

J. W. Foley.
He blew inter Lanigan's swingin' a gun.
An' swearin';
Dechin'!
Red rivers 'ud run
Down Alkali Valley an' oceans o' gore
'Ud wash sudden death on th' sugar-brushy shore,
An' shot a big hole inter Lanigan's floor.
He blew inter Lanigan's, swingin' a gun,
A new one,
A blue one,
A Colt's forty-one;
He shot some, normisks, where Lanigan stood,
An' would have put Lanigan in bad fer good,
But th' leg that he happened t' shoot in was wood.
He blew inter Lanigan's, shoutin' like mad.
An' ravin',
Gin whisky,
Gin whisky an' bad;
He shot a knot hole outen Lanigan's leg,
Th' wood one—an' shot th' bung outen a keg.
An' nigh let th' liquor all out, every drop.
An' Lanigan, seein' him goin' too far,
Too frisky,
(With whiskey)
Wuth cash at th' bar.)
Reached over an' pulled out a big forty-four
An' plugged him between th' back bar an' th' door,
Till he was less harmful than he was before.
He blew inter Lanigan's, lookin' fer gore,
An' tartin';
We carried;
Him out on a door;
An' Lanigan took a big splinter o' leg
An' got out his jackknife an' writtled a peg
To stop up th' hole he shot inter th'

The Wheat Trophies Go to the South and Oats and Barley Trophies to the North

AT PROVINCIAL SEED FAIR

A Grand Showing of Grain From All Parts of Alberta—Running is Close Between Different Districts

Judging was practically completed at the Seed Fair yesterday afternoon about 3 p.m., and the public was admitted. Then this exhibit was in shape to form history. It has been apparent for some years that to the north of the C.P.R. main line usually go the highest honors in oats, and to the south the highest honors in wheat. This may be said, is largely the result of climatic conditions, for the oats flourish better and fill out to greater weights in the cooler, moist soil and atmosphere of the north, while the wheat reveals in the drier atmosphere of the south, where it is more easily cured and harvested. It is a difference in the nature of the grains and what one gains one way it loses another, and thus will probably always be. The northern oat is plumper and heavier as a rule, the southern wheat is brighter in color and more uniform in hardness of berry, and so it goes.

The winning sample of Alberta Red winter wheat was extra good, weighing 48½ lbs. to the measure, and being very clear in color. The second, third, fourth and fifth are also very fine and only separated by small fractions.

The Red Fyfe competition was also very close and there was only a difference of two points in the score between the first five that received prizes which shows we are getting down to cases, for here some of the more northern wheat was bidding hard for the highest honors and only just missed them.

Lloydminster pulled out ahead in spring wheat of any other variety taking first and second with the more rapidly ripening Preston.

The oats are large classes and very strong in quality; the leaders in the banner variety are more northerly in residence, Okotoks coming in third, then comes Strathcona, and then Gleichen. In long or milling oats of any other variety, weight per bushel is again conspicuous, first going to Lloydminster with oats weighing 48½ lbs. per bushel, Ellerslie second with some that registered 47½ lbs. per bushel. Not so long ago we were growing about 46-lb. oats, now we have them 50 lbs. or near it. The short oats did run up to 50 lbs., these being grown by Jas. Black of Bowden. Nothing in the first five was under 47½ lbs. per bushel, and only 2½ points dividing the five prize winners.

Barley is improving and was in stronger competition than has usually been the case. Here color and soundness of grain made a great deal of difference, as the brewers have no use for dirty, stained or discolored grain for malting purposes. The barley scored well and weighed well, the six-rowed and two-rowed first prize winners both going 57 lbs. per bushel. Here again Ellerslie played some part and the indicator worked south.

The field peas are good, sound and well ripened. Flax is a big entry for this country, is on the increase, but was not scored on this occasion.

In grass seeds we are improving. The first prizes for Brome and Western Rye Grass went south to a man who is not new to winning prizes, and so did the Alfalfa seed prizes, first prize being withheld here because the seed was not clean enough and sufficiently free from the seeds of other plants.

Timothy seed was a good exhibit, and here Innisfail displayed her seed as a grass country by pulling in first; then second went to Midnapore and we came back to Bowden for the third.

The judging competitions were interesting and some one made the local remark that the more northern men won in judging grain and the more southerly men knew most about weeds, but this is hardly borne out by results.

Taken all in all this is a very fine and instructive exhibition and when it came to quarter points and half points dividing prize winners our farmers are getting pretty close together in raising grain. Another thing to mention is that grain that can score 85 points is very good grain and when we do not find a prize winner in barley, wheat or oats going that low or below so it speaks for itself.

In regard to the challenge trophies, that for spring wheat goes to Macleod, the one for Alberta Red to Magrath. The barley trophy goes to Winterton and the Garcon Seed Co.'s trophy on oats goes to Strathcona.

Y.M.C.A. HAD A GOOD YEAR

Report of Executive Committee Read at Annual Meeting in Y.M.C.A. Last Evening

ALL DEPARTMENTS STRONG Membership Holding its Own—Boys Department a New Feature of the General Y. M. C. A. Work

The fourth annual directors of the Y. M. C. A. Board of Directors for the year, ending December 31, 1909, was read as follows:

Gentlemen:—

Owing to the change made in our constitution last year the reports to be presented at this meeting cover but eight months, viz: from May 1, to December 31, 1909. In every department, we are glad that we are able to report progress. The association continues to occupy a unique field in the city serving its young men and boys in ways that conduce to a purer manhood and higher citizenship.

Membership

In every Association, the second year in a new building causes anxiety because of the slump that occurs in membership fees in the new year. It is a pleasure to note that there has not been any marked decrease in our membership during the second year. It is also gratifying to be able to report that each month from May to December inclusive, shows an increase in membership fees over the same month for the previous year. This is all the more remarkable from the fact that there has been no membership campaign during the past three months. Our present membership is 703, 166 boys and 537 men. The receipts for memberships in the past two years has been $10,200.25.

Educational Work

There has been a growing interest in Evening Classes. Over fifty of our members are enrolled in these classes and the subjects taught are: Arithmetic, Spelling, Penmanship, Stenography and First Aid to the Injured. We have been most fortunate in the teachers that conduct these classes and the result will be far-reaching both on those who have enrolled and on the life of the city.

Many new books for the library have been contributed by members and friends of the association. A very fine set of Scott's works was presented by the administrator of the estate of the late Thomas Henderson. The adding of a new encyclopedia has given us a very good reference library. The reading room has also been much improved by securing covers for the magazines.

Physical Department

The Gymnasium Classes are attracting an increasing number of our members. The total attendance at these classes for the months of October, November and December was 3129, as compared with 2265 in 1908. Fifteen classes were held each week and there has been a marked increase in the students' and business men's classes.

Swimming—One of the aims of the Association is to teach every boy to swim and in pursuance of this policy 102 boys who were not members of the association were enrolled in special swimming classes which were held during July and August. Of the number enrolled 73 attended regularly and 49 learned to swim.

Harrier Club—The Harrier Club had most successful season. At the Port on Victoria Day at the Caledonian games and at the Alberta championships at Calgary, the colors of the Edmonton Y. M. C. A. were well to the front. Four Alberta championships are held by members of the association; the 220 yards senior, by F. S. Parney; the half mile by M. G. Williams; the 220 yards junior by Clement Murray and the mile relay by the Edmonton Y. M. C. A. team.

Baseball—Last spring, the Y. M. C. A. Baseball club shared with the other amateur clubs in the city and formed a baseball league of five clubs. The club was efficiently managed and was most successful, only losing one game and that by one run and winning the championship and the cup, which is now stored away in our silver cabinet. The Juuors also had a league.

Oats—J. Chas. H. Barrett, Lloydminster.

Calgary Brewing and Malting Co.'s $100 Silver Trophy for 'Best Five Bushels of Six-rowed Barley—1. S. E.

Garton Seed Co.'s $100 Silver Trophy for Best Five Bushels of Garton's Abundance Oats—1. M. Smetzer, Strathcona.

and played an interesting series of games for the Bishop Shield.

Football—A strong football club was entered in the city league and was second in its division, only being beaten by the city champions, the Caledonians. In the five-side contest at the Caledonian games, the Y. M. C. A. club defeated all comers and won the cup and medals.

Bowling—In October, a bowling league of seven clubs was organized and after an interesting series of games the civil service team won the championship. The highest team score, 2270, was made by the printers, the highest individual score, 217, by A. G. Pallister, and the highest individual average, 169, by Walter B. Blackett. During the season 5712 tickets were sold.

Hockey—The hockey club again organized and arranged for practice at the Thistle Rink. The team is entered in the City Hockey League.

Basketball—There were four teams in the senior league and ten in the junior leagues in the fall series of games.

Competitions—During the summer, a series of athletic competitions were run off, the pentathlon system being used in finding the standing of competitors. An indoor series is also being run off during the regular gymnasium classes for the young men and student's classes.

Militia Camp—Our physical director, Mr. G. R. Jackson, had charge of the reading and writing tests at the Militia Camp at Groat's Plains. A useful work was also done in organizing games for the men when off duty.

Religious Work

There has been an increase in the number of Bible classes and also an increase in the attendance at religious meetings. Seven men's mass meetings were held, the attendance being 80 (last year, 398). Among the outside speakers who addressed these meetings were: H. K. Calkley, Toronto; Canon Tucker, F. H. T. Ritchie, C. W. Bishop and Rev. A. S. Tod, Daysland.

The attendance at the Sunday class was 783. Following this each Sunday evening, a strangers' tea is held and this is one of the most interesting gatherings the city holds in the association. There has been a total attendance at these teas of 490.

Boys' Department

The Boys' Department has had a remarkably good year. The boys' rooms having become too small to accommodate the present membership, two additional rooms have been taken over by this department and some changes made in the building that will tend to more effectively separate the senior and junior departments. The splendid spirit of the boys and the loyalty of the citizens to this work was amply demonstrated in the building campaign conducted by the boys when they secured pledges for $605 in three days. The activities of the boys along physical, social, religious and educational lines have been pretty fully covered in other parts of this report. Mention should also be made of the nature study club which, under the direction of Mr. F. S. Carr had a number of interesting and profitable trips during the summer months. Mr. Harlow also arranged for parties for boys to visit the power house, pecking plant, and other city industries. Those in charge of these parties were most kind in providing guides and explaining the methods in which they carry on their work. The boys took a combined summer excursion with the Calgary Y. M. C. A. boys at Sylvan Lake. The camp lasted two weeks and was a success in every respect. Because of the great importance of boys' work, arrangements have been completed for Mr. Harlow to devote his time entirely to this work and it is confidently expected that we shall have a very strong boys' department in this association.

The Association's Finances

The financial administration of this large and varied work has called for the closest supervision by the Finance Committee. The large debt that has been carried and subsequently the interest that has to be met has made the financial problem a difficult one. In the twenty-three months that we have been in the building $25,212.24 has been paid in interest and $2,527.78 has been transferred from the general account to the building fund. While it is satisfactory to know that we have met all our current obligations during the past eight months and have used $1,066 of the current revenue to wipe out some of our building indebtedness yet the fact must not be lost sight of that in using our current revenue for that purpose we are neglecting to keep up our building and our work. For example the money might have been used:

To strengthen our educational work, especially in endeavoring to serve the men of other tongues who are living in our city.

To enlarge the plunge.

To bank the running track in the gymnasium.

To secure an athletic field.

To add to our social equipment.

It must not be forgotten that it will cost more to keep our plant in good repair in the future that it has in the past two years. For these reasons and many others that might be urged it is essential that during this year provision be made for wiping off our indebtedness. Within the past year, Calgary has raised $50,000, Brandon $44,000; Port Arthur $15,000, and Nelson $30,000, so that $35,000, the amount required to place us in a good financial position will certainly be subscribed in this progressive city.

ANOTHER GUNNESS HOAX
 Nothing to the Story About Her Being in Minnesota

Wilmar, Minn., Feb. 3.—The latest story of the finding of Mrs. Gunness is likely to deserve the name of "the hoax of Kandiyooshi," as that is the name of the village nearest to the farm where Samuel Kirly says that Mrs. Gunness dwells and keeps house for his twin brother, Gustavus.

Sam said he had seen a picture of Mrs. Gunness and that he was sure Mrs. Casey, who kept house for his brother, was the same woman. He urged the newspaper men to get on the job at once, so that she should not get away.

Arrived at Wilmar at nine he was for housing the newspaper men right into a sleigh for the thirteen-mile drive to the farm. In the present condition of the roads this would take at least three and one-half hours.

"We can't let them get away, you know. We mustn't let them escape. My life has been threatened, but I'm going to go," he said. He did not, though. Neither did the reporters, who went at once to Sheriff Bonde. He asked them with a smile if they had seen "the detective" yet. They had, He had got on at Kandiyooshi.

Bonde said, as he has all along, that the Casey woman did not look like Mrs. Gunness' picture. Then the reporters went to see Samuel Garver, who had bought Gustavus Kirly's farm, and who asked if they had seen the "detective." They had.

The reporters showed Mr. Garver and Mrs. Garver and Miss Garver a photograph of Mrs. Gunness. They went over every feature and said the picture did not look like Gustavus Kirly's housekeeper. They also said that Mrs. Casey was decidedly blonde. They also said the Casey woman's eyes were brown or black. Mrs. Gunness' eyes were greenish gray. Mrs. Casey has a four-year-old son, who looks like her.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Carrie Nation, the saloon smasher, came to Washington a few weeks ago and wrecked the Union Station bar and was fined in the police court.

She paid her attorney, Matthew E. O'Brien, by cheque. Mr. O'Brien cashed the cheque with a friend. Another friend accommodated the first friend, and Seventh street saloon-keeper obliged the second friend.

Now the saloon keeper has an advertising card out with a photographic reproduction of the cheque, with the caption, "We cash Carrie Nation's cheques."

A PRESS GALLERY.

The hall in the rear of the government buildings, where the session of the first Legislature were held, is now being remodelled to accommodate the greatly increased membership which the session of this month will show. The telephone branch has occupied the hall, but has been moved to the basement of the main building. The carpenters are now at work re-installing the legislature furnishings. The railing is being enlarged to accommodate sixteen new seats which puts a crimp in the quarters hitherto allotted to the spectators. One very pleasing feature of the renovations is the construction of a press gallery above the speaker's chair. To provide for this a partition has to be torn down and the space occupied by the members' stenographer reduced by four or five feet along the entire width of the building.
